Fantastic line up of artists and entertainers at Surry Hills Festival

The first release of the line up for Surry Hills Festival indicates a brilliant mix of Sydney's hottest musicians and up and coming artists.

The wait is over for the first release of the line up for Surry Hills Festival, Saturday 12 April, 2008. With eight performance areas to choose from, festival goers can select from an eclectic mix of local indie rock, acoustic, DJ's and dance as well as the zany variety expected at The Lilypad.

Festival goers will want to hit Prince Alfred Park early, to allow an entire day to check out the Green Stage, 3DWorld Stage, 2SER Stage, Fashion Catwalk, Reckless Republic and Rainbow Stage, as well as The Lilypad, courtesy of Big Day Out.

Highlights of the confirmed line ups include:

Green stage: Watussi, King Farook, The Dirty Secrets, Hyske, Kat Frankie, Meow Kapow, Toys Become Real, Jordan Millar and the Question.

2SER stage: Bec Paton, Meem, Chris Low, Nardo, Leigh Tran

The second line up release later this week will provide details of artists featured on the 3DWorld, The Lilypad & Reckless Republic stages.

Entertainment programmes with the line up for each stage will be available at the entrance gates – or can be downloaded from the Surry Hills Neighbourhood Centre website www.surryhillsfestival.org.au

This year, the festival is presenting a diverse showcase of inner city culture. The festival Fashion Catwalk will feature creations by emerging fashion designers, while a visit to 'Dramatic Intent' will bring you up close and personal with leading professionals in the performing arts. And of course, Prince Alfred Park will come alive with 250 market stalls just waiting to be explored – and tantalizing international food to savour.

This free festival is produced by the Surry Hills Neighbourhood Centre as a major fundraiser for the Centre's community services. You're invited to make a gold coin donation on festival day towards this great cause. The festival is strictly no BYO and no glass on the grass.
